Legion-All Star Game Hard Fought Battle

Followers of football in Torrance and Lomita witnessed, on Saturday afternoon at the Union Tool ball grounds, one of the most brilliantly played and hardest fought games seen here in a long time, when the American Legion team, managed and coached by Ernie Fowks, and an All-Star team headed by our versatile and public-spirited fellow-townsmen and city dad, E. H. Nash, battled for four long quarters to a scoreless tie.

A regrettable and painful incident occurred early in the first quarter, when Sam Levy, playing right end for the Legion team, was bumped so hard as to break his collar-bone. Sam, game old sport, is doing nicely under the care of the doctor, but the accident had seriously interfered with his speech.

The American Legion wishes to take this opportunity to express its appreciation for the sportsmanship displayed by the Llewellyn Iron Works team, and the amiability of all the players, particularly in view of the fact that the contributions of the spectators all went into the Legion's coffers.

There is a feeling among the players and their friends that the Legion team is the better of the two, especially in view of the fact that most of the game was played on the Llewellyn 35-yard line, and had no less than two chances for score, while the All-Star team never once was near the goal.

It is to be hoped that this dispute can be settled next year, and during the regular football season. It is likely that a number of other games can be scheduled for Torrance in the future.

THE IDAHO-UTAH PICNIC

The opening picnic reunion for 1923, will be the Utah picnic in Sycamore Grove, Los Angeles, all day, Saturday, January 20th, 1923. Each one will bring big basket dinners for self and friends. Pass the word along to everyone from these old home states. Come early, stay late, enjoy meeting the old-time friends.

EX-CONSTABLE TO MEXICO

Ed Voris has sold his home in Torrance to W. C. Von Hagen of that City. Mr. Voris contemplates a trip in the near future to Guaymas, Mexico.

SEND IN YOUR PICTURES

Extension of time has been granted photographers entering the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce Picture contest, according to announcements just received.

Interruption of outdoor camera work by the rains determined the organization to set ahead the closing date to January 23, allowing thereby three weeks after the original date ending the contest.

Practically every county in the southern section of the state is represented by artistic, humorous and commercial phases of life in Southern California shown in amateur and professional photographic work received at the chamber.

One hundred dollars will be given by the chamber for the best thirteen photographs; for the first, $25; second, $15; third, $10; and for the ten considered next best, $5 each.

Entrants may submit a number of pictures, and these will be returned, providing owners send in names and addresses. Prize winners will be asked to turn in their negatives for permanent use in the chamber and abroad and for illustrating chamber of commerce literature on the southern counties.

Scores of loyal Southern Californians have availed themselves of the opportunity to advertise the beauty and opportunities of their communities through the picture contest.

Torrance Delegation To 4th Dist. Meeting

Headed by George W. Proctor, a delegation of citizens attended the big meeting of the Fourth District Chamber of Commerce at Hermosa Beach, on Thursday evening January 11.

Many members of the Torrance chamber of commerce have taken an active interest in the affairs of the fourth supervisory district. The past year has witnessed the accomplishment of many worthwhile things through the combined efforts of the thirty-one civic-commercial organizations, which comprise the Fourth District chamber.

This is the first time in two years that Hermosa Beach has entertained the district organization, and an effort was successfully made by the citizens of the beach city to make the evening a pleasant one.

Dinner was served as usual at 6:30 o'clock. The sun room of the Municipal Pier was the scene of the festivity. A program with especially selected numbers was added to the usual business session of the organization.

Vice-President Finckle of the Southwest Chamber of Commerce presided in the absence of President Merriman, who is a member of the Legislature.

TORRANCE IN THE MOVIES

The Hendrie Tire Factory of Torrance was the place chosen by the Universal Picture company of Universal City, Sunday, for the taking of numerous scenes in a new Bob Hill serial. The story of this picture is about a man who had succeeded in building up a tire factory, but the worry occasioned by this struggle causes his death, and he is found dead in his chair in his office as the result of heart failure, and his son takes over the business. Then comes all kinds of trouble for him, and among them were agitators who were trying to stir up a strike among the men because they did not think the money could be obtained to pay them. Various scenes were taken showing the men at work.

Quite a number of Torrance people were at the factory watching the making of these scenes.
